Dedication

A dedicated teacher

A diligent worker

A devoted friend

We, the yearbook staff of 1963, take great pleasure in dedicating this edition of THE PRESIDENTIAL LOG to a teacher whom we all admire and respect, Mr. Perry Hardman. Although he has left our school, he will remain in our memory as the kind, pleasant fellow we all know him to be. We would like this dedication to be a symbol of our appreciation for the seven years he spent as an instructor in Roosevelt-Wilson.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1963, realizing that our days in R-W are numbered, do hereby bequeath to the class of 1964 our enormous intelligence in hope that they will use it better than we did. We hereby declare this our Last Will and Testament:

I, Patty Adams, leave my connections with WI to anyone who can find transportation.
I, Carman Allowat, leave my place on the steps of the little red church to "Skip" Hayes.
I, Don Anderson, will my nickname "Doodles" to Anthony Mazzie.
I, Mary Belcastro, leave my love for history to Dave Jones, and my ability to get A's in citizenship to Gordon Bland.
I, Tom Benda, leave the teachers, so they can educate next year's students.
I, Clarence Bennett, leave R-W after 12 years of hard labor.
I, Neda Kaye Bocco, leave my cheering ability to anyone with strong vocal chords.
I, Donna Buck, leave Mr. Rollins so that I can go into the "Business World."
I, Linda Burns, leave my ability to get an engagement ring to anyone interested in matrimony.
I, Barbara Burrows, leave my basketball playing ability to Beverly Powell.
I, Barry Burrows, leave my band grades to Denzil Davisson.
I, Naomi Callis, leave my car to the Nutter Fort Street Department.
I, Bill Childers, leave my laughter to all optimistic juniors.
I, James Cottrill, leave my thoughts in assembly to John Groover.
I, Raymond Cox, leave my ability to get along with red heads to Tim Brinkley.
I, Gordon Coyier, leave my height to Bobby Brown.
I, Beverly Davis, will the tears that I shed in assembly while singing the Alma Mater to Dorothy Calvert.
I, Brenda Dean, leave my position in the drill team to Dianne Gain.
I, Frances Dean, leave my dimples to Sue Wilfong.
I, Junior Dean, leave my name "Carrol" to Dewey Paugh.
I, Guyann Dotson, leave my singing ability to Paula Mayse.
I, Patty DeLong, leave my long curls to Sue McKown.
I, Leo Dotson, leave the Presidency of the Student Council to anyone who thinks he can fill my shoes.
I, Judy Dyer, will my position in the Choral Club to Dom DePolo.
I, John Firth, will my negative nature to Don Webster.
I, Mary Fleming, will my love to Eddie Freshour, and my chewing gum to Rod Forinash.
I, Barbara Fragmin, will my petite size to Mary Frost.
I, Linda George will my seat at Bennett's to anyone who can stand the smoke.
I, Jackie Gettings, leave my seventh grade gym class to anyone with the time and energy.
I, Linda Golden, will my white hat to Dianne Payne and my blonde hair to Anthony LeRoy.
I, Sandra Hawkins, will my grace and poise to some cute junior.
I, Chuck Graves, will my reputation as "Locker-Room Casanova" to Jim McClain.
I, Yolanda Gray, leave everything in my locker.
I, Ronnie Griffin, leave my position in the bank to Mickey Shreves.
I, Donna Griffith, will my love, luck, and happiness to all sophomores.
I, Leon Hachat, leave R-W, but take my car with me.
I, Ronnie Hall, leave R-W, but take Sharon with me.
I, Tom Hall, leave my membership in the Hi-Y to Danny Peasak.
I, JoDonna Hannah, will my sewing ability to Linda Oldaker.
I, Connie Harmon, will my high standards of living to anyone who wants to make something of himself.
I, Farrell Hawkins, will my English book to Gary Corder in hope that he can pass.
I, Donna Haymond, leave my white hair to Cheyenne Rollins.
I, Carolyn Heaster, leave my ability to date boys six feet tall to Paula Goff.
I, Dorothy Heater, will my friendly disposition to Brenda Oldaker.
I, Annette Hileman, leave my hair-do's to Judy Anderson.
I, Bill Hogue, leave R-W, but I don't know how they'll get along without me.
I, Clem Hood, will my D.E. grades to any hard working student who has the ability to keep up the standard.
I, Robert Hupps, will my chemistry workbook to anyone who can solve the equations.
I, Pam Isner, will my place in the "Chow Line" at the grade school to Nancy Palmer.
I, Billie Jaggie, will my cute smile to Marie Burrows.
I, Sue Ann Kelly, will all the fun I've had at R-W to Pam Skinner.
I, Shirley Kerns, leave my ability to receive letters every week to any one who likes to write.

Class Will

I, Sharon Kesling, will my ability to "hum" in class and get away with it to Jackie Childers.
I, Carl King, will my "banged-up" car to anyone who can repair it.
I, David Kirkpatrick, will my romances to Tom Schetzel.
I, Raymond Kirtner, will my height to Linda White.
I, Bill Lewis, will my ability to get a seat on the Broadway bus to anyone with friends.
I, Patty Losh, will my locker to anyone who likes to get hit in the face with locker doors.
I, Sharon Loy, will my job as secretary to Brenda Martin.
I, Danny Mancuso, will my masculine voice to Jim Randall.
I, Mary McCoy, will my "Fan Club" to Ervin Fisher.
I, Loraine McGary, will my white wig to anyone who wants to get old fast.
I, Sharon McGary, will my temper to Sandra Bartlett.
I, Sheila McGinnis, leave my position as drum majorette to an "Up and Coming" sophomore or junior.
I, Joe Messenger, will my ability to turn "red as a beet," when I'm embarrassed to my brother Derek.
I, Jill Michael, leave my seat at Dailey's to anyone who can eat while standing up.
I, Sharon Miles, will my ability to wear two class rings on the same finger to anyone with long fingers.
I, Tom Mills, will my crutch to Mr. Bonfili for future use.
I, Sharon Mitchell, leave R-W and agree to Ronnie's plans.
I, Harlan Molisee, will my Modern Problems book to John Trovato.
I, Danny Morris, leave my laughter to haunt the halls of R-W forever.
I, Lenora Moscar, leave my "pinky" uniform to anyone interested in nursing.
I, Bob Myers, will my ability to go steady to Stanley Wolfe.
I, Genia Nixon, will my typing ability to Dixie Rollins.
I, Theresa Oliverio, will my dancing lessons to Linda Post.
I, Mary Palmer, will my red hair to Carolyn Losh.
I, Charles Payton, will my bass drum to anyone who can carry it.
I, Linda Perri, leave Jimmy -- but only to be educated.
I, Judy Post, will my long fingernails to any girl who needs them.
I, Shirley Prine, will my ability to go steady with a new boy every week to anyone who can remember names.
I, John Reppert, will my date book to Randy Libicer.
I, Tom Robinson, leave my athletic ability to John Jaggie.
I, Linda Rogers, will my place at the Civic Center to "Fuzzy" Fazio.
I, Larry Satterfield, will my talkative ways to Millie Fleming.
I, Louie Seamon, will my "special way to comb hair" to Jim Bragg.
I, Nancy Shreves, will all my tickets to the man in the blue uniform.
I, Robert Skidmore, will my love for social studies to Judy Grogan.
I, Dave Skinner, will my Chemistry book to anyone who promised not to blow up the school.
I, Dave Small, will my ability to make friends to Robin Newhouse.
I, Glenn Smith, will my basketball position to Dave Swick.
I, John Sponaugle, will my humor to anyone who likes to get his grades cut.
I, Richard Sprouse, leave my pleasant ways to Jim Knicely.
I, Jim Stuart, will my speaking ability to Larry Sinsel.
I, Sharon Swain, will my black hair to Donna Davis.
I, Christine Terango, will my clarinet to Patty Bocco in hopes that she doesn't break it.
I, Sheila Todd, will my long hair to anyone who can keep it.
I, Gary Tokarcik, will my guitar to anyone who can keep it in tune.
I, James Vanscoy, will my quietness to Melinda Davis.
I, Jane Wamsley, will my cute walk to Maureen Hannigan.
I, Frank Wanstreet, will my typewriter to anyone who can make mistakes.
I, Dan Westfall, leave the shop class to Mr. Smith.
I, Ed Westfall, leave a few pounds to any thin sophomore football player.
I, Irvin Wolfe, will my ability to live up to my name to Francis Wolford.
I, Karen Wolverton, will my soprano voice to the Choral Club.
I, Terry Yoho, leave my locker partner to anyone who likes a messy locker.
I, Jerry Zinn, will my ability to get the last seat in all my classes to Carolyn Zontak.

We hereby nominate and appoint Mrs. Jane Maxwell to be executor of this will. In testimony whereof, we have here unto set our hand this fifth day of June, in the year, nineteen hundred and sixty-three.

Class Prophecy

The scene takes place in the office of a psychiatrist, Dr. Raymond Cox. The patient visiting Dr. Cox is Miss Linda Golden. The year is 1983. Miss Golden has had a frightening dream about the graduating class of 1963 at Roosevelt-Wilson High School.

MISS GOLDEN: Dr. Cox, about three nights ago, I had a very strange dream. I have worried much about the dream since then, and wonder if you could analyze it for me.

DR. COX: Yes, you may begin, Miss Golden.

MISS GOLDEN: In my dream I saw all the members of my graduating class of 1963, and everything that they were or had been doing. First of all, I saw Jim Stuart going bankrupt in the coffee business. Mrs. Maxwell who was head of a popular coffee company had put him out of business.

Danny Morris was going on an excursion to the moon with Sharon Kesling. At the back of their space ship was a sign reading, "just married, after all these years." Wedding bells were also ringing for the astronaut, Dave Skinner. He was planning to marry his favorite girl from twenty years before.

Many of my classmates were employed in national, state, or city government. To begin with, Leo Dotson was President of the United States. Frank Wanstreet was Mayor of Clarksburg, and Irvin Wolfe was Fire Chief. To my surprise Nancy Shreves had become a woman policeman in Clarksburg, and Louie Seamon was Police Chief. Bob Myers was Superintendent of Harrison County Schools and Dan Mancuso was his assistant.

Tom Robinson and Bill Childers were our favorite college foes in my dream. Tom was coaching at W. Va. University and Bill was coaching at Ohio State University. Among Tom's starting line up were: Raymond Kirtner, Carl King and Robert Skidmore.

Several of my classmates were married. In my dream Sharon Miles was married and nursing Stephen Junior's finger. I did not see her five other boys in my dream. Sheilah McGinnis was living on a farm with her husband. She finally had learned to milk a cow. Shirley Kerns and Dorothy Heater were both married. They had retired from the Parkette and were living in Paris. Sharon Mitchell and Ronnie Hall were happily married and were living in a trailer. Mary Palmer and John Firth were working in their twenty-first chemistry laboratory. For some strange reason the other twenty blew up.

Mary Fleming was a famous actress playing "Jane" in the movie "Tarzan." Harlan Molisee co-starred as "Tarzan." Leon Hachat and Gordon Coyier were actors also. They played the parts of skin divers on a television show. Brenda Dean, Frances Dean, Donna Griffith, Sandra Hawkins, Loraine McGary, and Linda George were all dancing for the Rockettes. Sue Anne Kelley had been fired because of a dispute with the manager, Yolanda Gray. Jo Donna Hannah has been trying very hard to take Sue's place.

Mary Belcastro was making sound effects for Tom Benda's new production which was currently on Broadway. Clarence Bennett was the leader of the famous band "Bennett's Bandits." His well-known members were Carolyn Heaster on the drums, Ronnie Griffin the saxaphone, Gary Tokarcik the guitar, and Christine

Class Prophecy

Terango on the clarinet. It was rumored that Clem "Kadiddle-hopper" Hood was in show business. I am sure that this was true because there was a billboard advertisement of his famous comedy team "Hogue, Holt, and Hupps." The main feature of the show was Donna Haymond singing beautiful love songs written by Billie Jaggie with lyrics by Bill Lewis.

Several of my friends were in the field of medicine in 1983. Jane Wamsley, Judy Dyer, Lenora Moscar, and Sharon Swain were all nurses in the famous Johns Hopkins Hospital. Jill Michael was the head medical technologist in the same hospital. Patty Adams and Carmen Allowat were working in a pharmacy. Their slogan was "Our pills cure your ills."

The rest of my class had many other professions. Jackie Gettings and Beverly Davis were working as cooks at Moon's Diner. The head chief was Linda Perri. Linda Burns, Patty Losh, and Barbara Fragmin were all clerks in Macy's Department Store.

Naomi Callis and Linda Rogers were models for Sears, Roebuck and Company. Barry Burrows and Junior Dean were paratroopers. James Vanscoy had been one, but he couldn't find the rip cord on the parachute which had been made by the Sponaugle, Sprouse, and Smith Parachute Company. James Cottrill and Larry Satterfield had taken up farming in Idaho. Chuck Graves had replaced Abigal Van Buren as "Dear Abby." He was reviewing his letters from the lovelorn. Neda Kaye Bocco was traveling to Formosa to visit a long lost friend. Sharon Loy and Terry Yoho were traveling salesmen representing a cleaning company. Donna Buck and Barbara Burrows were the secretaries of the great lawyer, Don Anderson. Judy Post and Pam Isner were teaching at R-W. Judy was the Senior English teacher and Pam was the guidance counselor. Sharon McGary was working at Robert's Hardware. Karen Wolverton and Guyann Dotson were singing in the choir at David Kirkpatrick's church. Jerry Zinn was living in a plush mansion in Bridgeport. John Reppert and Joey Hitt were the proud owners of a successful gym the name of "Muscles Anonymous." Poor Patty DeLong was still trying to get out of Bullskin. Dave Small was a famous pizza pie maker in Ed Westfall's restaurant. The name of the restaurant was "Ed's Eatin' Place." Theresa Oliverio was a famous dancer in Dan Westfall's "Dan's Dancin' Dolls" night club. Sheila Todd and Shirley Prine were opening a pet shop. Their slogan was "We will de-flea your dog." Tom Hall was the winner of the 1963 Indianapolis '500' with Mark McCoy as his faithful mechanic. Farrell Hawkins and Tom Mills were working for a famous chiropractor in New York. Last but not least Charles Payton and Genia Nixon were working for "Time" magazine. Charles was writing and Genia was, believe it or not, a photographer.

Dr. Cox this concludes my dream. Wake up Dr. Cox! Weren't you listening?

DR. COX: No, I wasn't, Miss Golden. I fell asleep and had the strangest dream about my Senior Class in high school. Would you like to hear my dream?

The Roosevelt Wilson High School Band, under the able direction of Mr. Richard Johnson, is very proud to announce it has had another successful season, thanks to the Band Patrons, members, and director. To begin with, the Band initiated a new summer program which began in June. This was the first step in preparing for marching at football games and in parades and for playing for basketball games and in concerts. The annual candy sale was also very successful and twenty-five additional uniforms were purchased. The Band participated in the 1962 Forest Festival and the 1963 Band Festival. The newly-elected officers for the year of 1963 are: President, Denzil Davisson; Vice-president, Maureen Hannigan; Secretary, Carolyn Heaster; Treasurer, Donna Haymond.

Alma Mater

You may sing of Alma Maters,
Seen along life's way,
But above all other colors
Flashes red and gray.
Though school days will soon be over,
Fond memories long will cling.
So we hail our Alma Mater
Of R-W sing.

To dear R-W we'll e'er be true.
Wherever we may roam,
We'll think of you.
In all the years to come,
Our whole life through,
Our fondest dreams will be,
R-W of you.

Jack,
Isn't a real nice boy, lots of luck, in the near future. Why are you tall? I don't know but your someone nice to look up to. HA HA. Well good luck always and may you always be happy and a good or should I say great basketball player.

Good luck with that special someone.

Cute too.

Jack,
Isn't a real nice boy, lots of luck in the future

Linda
